New York State Tournaments Well Patronized Last Week.

MINOR GONTESTS DECIDED

Final Round of Championship Was Scheduled for Yesterday.

The annual meeting of the New York State Chess Association, played at the Man-nattan Chess Club on Thursday, must be out down as a huge success in every respect the various tourneys, fourteen in the championship tourney, eight in the first class, six in the second class and three in the third class of the general tourney. Following is the complete list of com-

Championship Tourney—A. H. Bierwirth, L. B. Meyer, F. D. Rosebault, J. Rosenthal, pr. George F. Adair, G. E. Northrup, Her-bert Limburg, Charles Jaffe, who only returned from Europe a few days ago: G. Schwietzer, A. J. Souweine, Otto Roeth-ing, I. Tenwurzel, J. Bernstein and Major

General Tournament, Class A-M. D. Hago, P. Lipschutz, A. Kupchik, A. Mc-Martin, M. Franklin, M. Diesenhoff, Jaques Liebling and A. Lazinsk.

Class B.-B. Fein, John Dornbach, H.
Ring, A. Hegeman, E. L. Gluck and A. G.

Class C-John McInerney, M. J. Keys nd R. E. Brigham.
A. Kupchik won in the first class of the general tourney without losing a game, winning four straight. Hago got second money, while Franklin and Liebling divided the third prize.

Ring and Gluck divided the first and second prizes in the second class of the general tourney, while Fein was placed third, and in the last class of the general tourney McInerney and Brigham were placed first and second respectively.

According to the schedule only three rounds had to be disposed of in the champlonship tourney. The fourth and final round was to have been played at the Manhattan Chess Club yesterday evening. The following table shows the results of all the fourteen players in this event up to the con-li will thus be seen that Rosenthal, Northrup, Schwietzer, Jaffe, Souweine, Roething, Tenenwurzel and Bernstein qualified for the final round. Souweine, however, delared his inability to-play and so Meyer and to take his place.

One of the competitors shortly before the start, Herbert Limburg, offered a prize for the most brilliant game in the tourneys, and there is no doubt that many a player tried for the prize, thus making some of the games very interesting. In connection with this prize the tourney manager requested The Six to state that intending competitors should forward the scores of these games to the American Chess Bulletin, 150 Nassaut street.

Throughout the day the rooms of the club to the American Chess Bulletin, 150 Nassau street.

Throughout the day the rooms of the club were crowded with spectators, who seemed to enjoy the proceedings thoroughly. Among the visitors were Walter Penn Shipley of Philadelphia, J. L. Clark of Boston. Os-ar Chajes of Chicago, a player who returned on Thursday from Europe; President Aristides Martinez, Dr. Louis Cohn, Felix E hahn and a host of members of the club and local chess celebrities. There was not a smoothly as possible and spectators and riayers alike were greatly satisfied with all the arrangements. Louis Hein kindly volunteered to take charge of the management, while L. Sternberg, the club's recording secretary, acted as referee.

Following is another selection of games by L. Hoffer.
